

TERRITORY CRAFT DARWIN Presents:

Glass Bead Making for Beginners

With Michelle Selway

This workshop for beginners will introduce participants to the fun and simple techniques involved in glass bead making. Learn how to use flame and glass to create the building blocks of contemporary and fashion jewellery and body adornment. Michelle is an experienced bead maker who has taught extensively.

An example of Michelle's work.
More can be found at www.leethonyhollow.com.au

Dates: 29th May 2010 – Saturday

Time: 9.00am – 4.00pm

Cost: Non-members $ 145
Members $ 120

Materials:

Participants are asked to bring:

- A pair of safety glasses
- Pen and paper for note taking

Student must attend class in closed footwear and appropriate clothing.

This class is a prerequisite to the more advanced Bead Making Classes.

For enquiries and bookings contact Territory Craft

tcdarwin@bigpond.com or 8981 6616

Sponsored by:

